LEARN TO ACT WITH ACTING 101: A BRAND-NEW CLASS FROM TAPROOT THEATRE'S ACTING STUDIO

SEATTLE – February 17, 2011 – You're never too old to learn to act. Adults who have always wanted to try acting can explore the craft in a fun, no pressure environment in Acting 101, a brand-new class from Taproot Theatre's Acting Studio. Beginning actors will learn the building blocks of acting through theatre games and scene work. Acting 101 takes place on Tuesdays from April 5 through May 17, 6:30-8:30 p.m. (no class on April 19). The class location will be announced soon.

Acting 101 is part of the Acting Studio's spring quarter, which features classes for kids and adults of all ages and experience levels. Classes run March 10 through May 17. Registration is open now. Registration is now available online, along with class descriptions, at www.taproottheatre.org, or contact Taproot's Acting Studio at (206) 529-3668 or studio@taproottheatre.org.

About Taproot Theatre Company's Acting Studio

Taproot Theatre Company's Acting Studio offers year-round classes for youth and adults taught by local theatre professionals. Budding thespians will find classes to help them develop their acting skills, while more seasoned actors can build on their knowledge and learn new techniques. Taproot Theatre Company is a professional, non-profit theatre company with a multi-faceted production program. Founded in 1976, Taproot Theatre serves the Pacific Northwest with Mainstage Productions, Touring Productions and Acting Studio. Taproot exists to create theatre that explores the beauty and questions of life while bringing hope to our search for meaning. Taproot Theatre Company is a member of Theatre Communications Group (TCG), Theatre Puget Sound (TPS), and the Greenwood-Phinney Chamber of Commerce.

Youth Classes

Drama with Your Mama

Come experience the class everyone's talking about! Drama with Your Mama pairs toddlers and their parents or caregivers in an engaging and enriching class designed to activate and encourage children's imaginations while helping them bond with their caregivers. Incorporating drama games, music, storytelling and creative play, this class nurtures children's social, physical and vocal awareness and teaches them to work with others. Parents and caregivers will learn to cultivate their children's creativity with fun, exciting games and activities they can also incorporate into playtime at home. "a great parent-toddler activity... a really wonderful program" – Q13 FOX News Ages 1-3

Dramatic Adventures

Acting is a tall order, with many skills required to create believable characters and situations, but this class breaks it all down for young actors, helping them learn each of the components of acting-words, emotions, thoughts, expressions and movement-in a fun and exciting way. With sessions for various age groups, ranging from Pre-K through third grade, each session is designed with lessons specifically targeted for your child's age. Children will be encouraged to use their imaginations as they work together to create their own play, which they'll perform for friends and family during the final class.
