CREATIVE DRAMATICS: A SUMMER FULL OF FUN AT TAPROOT THEATRE'S ACTING STUDIO

SEATTLE – April 26, 2011 – Fairy tales, knights and dragons, superheroes and jungle creatures—Taproot Theatre's Acting Studio offers plenty of fun for kids with its week-long Creative Dramatics summer camps. Creative Dramatics offers kids from Pre-K through 2nd grade a great introduction to drama and is a guaranteed imagination builder. Students will have a great time cultivating their creativity and working together to create a presentation that shows off everything they've learned in camp. There's a new Creative Dramatics session nearly every week throughout the summer; parents can choose a session based on the schedule or by theme!

Creative Dramatics is just one of many camps offered during this summer. Children must be age 4 or older and completely potty-trained. Summer quarter runs from June 20 through August 26. Registration is open now. Camps are held at Taproot Theatre (204 N 85th St.) and Phinney Ridge Lutheran (7500 Greenwood Ave. N) in Seattle. Registration is now available online, along with class descriptions, at www.taproottheatre.org, or contact Taproot's Acting Studio at (206) 529-3668 or studio@taproottheatre.org.
