Taproot Theatre announces Holiday 2011 production

Beasley's Christmas Party* comes to Taproot Theatre this November & December

SEATTLE – July 14, 2011 – Taproot Theatre brings Christmas cheer and old-fashioned Americana to the stage this holiday season with Beasley's Christmas Party. The charming 1909 novel from Booth Tarkington was adapted for the stage by C.W. Munger. Beasley's Christmas Party opens on November 25 and runs through December 30, with low-price previews on November 18 & 19, plus a pay-what-you-can performance on November 23.

A holiday classic reborn! When a curious journalist moves to a small Midwestern town in 1909, he's captivated by his unusual next door neighbor, gubernatorial candidate David Beasley. Is Beasley crazy or does he just have more imaginary friends than we can count? Full of hope and heart, this holiday tale will charm your whole family with its surprising twists.

Tickets go on sale to the public on October 4; 2011 subscribers may preorder their tickets with their 2012 subscription renewal.
