ADD SOME DRAMA TO YOUR PLAY DATES

Fun and silliness abound in class from Taproot Theatre's Acting Studio

SEATTLE – July 11, 2011 – It's never too early to introduce children to all the fun, educational and enriching elements of theatre. This fall, join the many families who've experienced Drama with Your Mama from Taproot Theatre's Acting Studio. Featuring drama games, music, storytelling and creative play, Drama with Your Mama engages and enriches toddlers and their parents or caregivers. Designed to activate and encourage children's imaginations while helping them bond with their caregivers, this class nurtures children's social, physical and vocal awareness and teaches them to work with others. Parents and caregivers will learn to cultivate their children's creativity with fun, exciting games and activities they can also incorporate into playtime at home.

Drama with Your Mama takes place on Thursdays, from October 20 through November 17, 10-10:45 a.m., in Seattle at a location to be announced. The five-week sessions are $45, or classes are available on a drop-in basis for $10 per class.

Fall quarter at Taproot's Acting Studio also features classes for kids and adults of all ages, including Creative Dramatics, Holiday Break Camp, and the brand-new Theatrelab for adults. Fall quarter runs September 19 through December 30. Classes are held at Taproot Theatre (204 North 85th St.) and other locations in Seattle. Registration is open now. Registration forms and class descriptions will soon be available online at www.taproottheatre.org, or contact Taproot's Acting Studio at (206) 529-3668 or studio@taproottheatre.org.
