Taproot Theatre seeking alternate location for this weekend's performance of Enchanted April after Greenwood fire

SEATTLE – October 23, 2009 – As fire crews work on the scene of this morning's fire on 85th street in Greenwood, Taproot Theatre is working on finding an alternative theatre space for the remaining performances of Enchanted April, which is set to close this Saturday to three sold-out performances.

Taproot staff members are waiting to obtain access to the building to assess the damage. More details about the situation and possible new location for the show will be released soon.
