Taproot Theatre moves performances of Enchanted April to Seattle Children's Theatre after Greenwood fire

SEATTLE – October 23, 2009 – Taproot Theatre Company is moving its closing weekend performances of Enchanted April to Seattle Children's Theatre due to fire at an adjacent building, which caused significant damage to Taproot Theatre. The fire early this morning has forced tonight's performance to be canceled. Tomorrow's shows (October 24) will take place at 2 and 8 p.m.

Patrons who have tickets for tonight's performance may choose to attend either of tomorrow's performances. Taproot Theatre is calling patrons who have tickets to the remaining shows to let them know about the change. Due to the high volume of calls, please wait to hear from us. Please do not call Seattle Children's Theatre.

The performances will have festival seating, on a first-come, first-served basis. Additional tickets will be available to purchase immediately prior to performances, cash or check only.

Seattle Children's Theatre is located at 201 Thomas Street at Seattle Center.

Thank you to all the theatres and arts organizations who have stepped up to offer support and alternative locations during this time. The Seattle theatre community has been incredibly generous.

Please check our website, taproottheatre.org, for the most current information.
