

Kendall Center Fact Sheet: About Our Spaces

Versatile, intimate and contemporary, The Kendall Center is a unique location for events, performances, lectures, company meetings or concerts in the North Greenwood area. The Isaac Studio Black Box is a performance area with retractable seating that makes the space flexible and open for use by both production and private companies. The Conference Room is a refreshing option for meetings and smaller private events. The Jewell Rehearsal Room provides space for smaller and more informal rehearsals and meetings.

Isaac Studio Theatre:

- Black Box Theatre seats 115 – seats retract to provide a completely open area perfect for receptions and workshops.
- Green room area with two restrooms/changing rooms, refrigerator, and kitchenette
- A range of lighting and sound equipment is available in-house to support a variety of events. Details and inventory available upon request.
- Stage area 11' x 28'
- Open area without seats 36' x 45'
- Patron Maximum Capacity: 122

Kendall Center Lobby:

- Bright new space equipped with built in seating and sound system for small private or public functions.
- Patron Maximum Capacity: 97

Kendall Center Conference Room:

- Bright, airy, and modern, an ideal location for business meetings, private parties, classes, and smaller rehearsals.
- Adjacent Zawoysky Terrace features a green wall and a secluded view of downtown Greenwood
- In house catering and coffee service options available from the Stage Door Café.
- Patron Maximum Capacity: 20

Jewell Rehearsal Room (located next door in our original 204 building)

- An ideal space for private lessons, rehearsals, or auditions.
- Equipped with mirrors, a refrigerator, and storage for props, costumes, and personal items during the rental period.
- Maximum capacity is 25 people