Taproot Theatre makes every effort to accommodate your preferences. 2020 Season 5-Play subscribers will be placed in their current seats if the same series and quantity of subscriptions is ordered and if the order is received before the March 25th deadline. After the deadline, subscribers are seated on a first-come, first-served basis. Subscribers changing their package/series or requesting seating changes will be seated in the order their subscription was received, based on the best availability within the series that is ordered.
