Intern Commitment

Interning demands a great deal of flexibility. Please make sure you understand the specific time requirements for the position you are applying for.

Taproot Theatre Company's Mission Statement

Taproot Theatre Company tells stories of hope, serving the Pacific Northwest through live theatre and educational programs. We value faith. We respect people. We celebrate theatre. While we are a faith-based organization and our senior leadership staff are people of faith, all of our work within our Education department, including our Summer Acting Studio program, is secular.
